"THE BEGINNINGS OF NEW ENGLAND"

The Pilgrims, in the Mayflower of 180 tons burthen, sailed from Plymouth in Devonshire, just 100 strong, on Sept. 6, 1620, and sighted Cape Cod on Nov. 9, of that year: that first winter, fifty-one of that chosen band had died but the first permanent settlement in New England had been planted.

In the following eight years hardly five hundred settlers altogether arrived in New England but in 1628 with the founding of Salem a new era opened.

On March 19, 1628, John Endicott and five associates received a grant of land from the Council of New England and with 60 followers arrived at the place of settlement in the following September, which he called "Salem," meaning "peace."

In June 1628, the Petition of Right was passed by both Houses of Parliament, to become one hundred and forty-eight years later the corner stone of our Declaration of Independence.

On March 2, 1629, King Charles forcibly dismissed Parliament and "for eleven years no Parliament sat again in England"; on Mch. 4, that same week, the King gave his assent to the Charter of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and on July 20, that same year, the first Town Meeting was held in Salem and the First Church organized: this is the Covenant signed by all—"We covenant with the Lord and one with another and do bind ourselves in the presence of God to walk together in all His ways according as He is pleased to reveal Himself unto us in His blessed word of truth."

Aug. 26, 1629, John Winthrop led the great Puritan migration from old England, which continued for eleven years: "God sifted a whole nation that he might send choice grain into the wilderness."

When the Long Parliament met in England in 1640, the Puritan migration came to an end: the New England population then amounted to about 26,000, of which John Fiske says that "In all history there has been no other instance of colonization so exclusively effected by picked and chosen men."

The Parliament of Great Britain, in the year 1643, for the purpose of revising the thirty-nine articles of the Church of England and of harmonizing the doctrine of the church with those of the Church of Scotland, called together an assembly of the most able theologians and prominent laymen of the nobility and gentry. This convention met on the first of July, 1643, in the chapel of Henry VII in Westminster Abbey and from that circumstance is known as the Westminster Assembly.

It was composed of ten members of the House of Lords, twenty of the House of Commons, six commissioners from the Presbyterian Church of Scotland and one hundred and forty-two clergymen of England, the most eminent in the Kingdom. They continued in session for more than five years and accomplished a revision of the 39 articles and composed the Westminster Confession of Faith.

Among the clerical members of this assembly were many names corresponding to familiar family names among us today: such as—Rev. Jeremiah Burroughs of Stepney, Rev. Humphrey Chambers of Claverton, Rev. Thos. Coleman of Beylson, Rev. John Green of Pencomb, Rev. Thomas Hill of Titmarch, Rev. John Phillips of Wrentham and Rev. Henry Scudder of Coling-borne.

Rev. Henry Scudder was a graduate of Christ College at Cambridge and later minister at Drayton in Oxfordshire, where he was held in the highest esteem: he was a constant attendant at the meetings of the Westminster Assembly and active in its deliberations.

Recorded in "Genealogical Gleanings," by Henry Waters, is the following:

Will of John Somers: makes bequests to "my sister Scudder's sons, Thomas, Henry, William and John, and to her daughters Elizabeth and Martha."

Will of William Scudder: makes bequests to Henry, Thomas and John, sons of brother Henry, deceased.

Thomas Scudder and wife Elizabeth Somers with children, came to Salem in 1635 from Kent, England.

Elizabeth Scudder is named in the Salem church list of 1640; she died in 1666.

Thomas Scudder left a will dated Sept. 30, 1657, proved June 29, 1658; names wife Elizabeth and children.

Thomas Halsey from Hertfordshire
